WGSA MUSE AWARDS CEREMONY

Now in its seventh successful year, the Writers Guild of South Africa will be hosting the WGSA Muse Awards Ceremony on Saturday, 14 May 2022.

Every scene we watch or listen to, be it on TV, in the movies, online, in a video game, on stage or even on the radio, originates in the creative mind of a scriptwriter.

The WGSA Muse Awards is a platform which finally recognises the talent, hard work and achievements of the performance writers of the WGSA.

It gives us great pleasure to invite you and your organisation to become an official sponsor of the WGSA Muse Awards and celebrate this important event with us.

Our various packages will give your business-extensive publicity in the build-up to the awards and centre stage exposure at the award ceremony, helping WGSA to make it a tremendous success.

WHY SPONSOR THE WGSA MUSE AWARDS?

- Support the celebration of South Africa's leading performance writers
- Invest in the development of South African performance writers
- Invest in the future of the local Film, TV, Radio, Theatre and new media industries
- Be aligned with the work and objectives of the Writers Guild of South Africa
- The WGSA Muse Awards are the ONLY awards for writers that are judged solely on the work of the writer – the original script is judged and not the produced work that includes the interpretation of the director and/or actor

As WGSA is a non-profit and public benefit company, any sponsorship in excess of what is needed to make the WGSA Muse Awards Ceremony a memorable event will be used to help fund the WGSA's Skills Lab and Grassroots Training Programmes, which will provide workshops and skills enhancement to more than 1000 beneficiaries in 2019/2020.

THE WGSA MUSE AWARDS

The WGSA Muse Awards runs nationally but, in 2019, it opened the competition to writers across the continent*. Submissions are open to all WGSA members, irrespective of whether they are long-standing members or new registrations. Entries are accepted in the following categories:

Finalists will all attend the WGSA Muse Awards Ceremony on Saturday, 14 May 2022.

WRITERS GUILD OF SOUTH AFRICA (WGSA)

The Writers Guild of South Africa (WGSA) opened its doors in May 2009 to advance screenwriting in South Africa and to fill the gap left by the defunct South African Script Writers' Association (SASWA).

The WGSA remains the only official industry organisation mandated to protect, empower and develop performance writers in the local film, television, radio, stage, animation and new media industries.

To achieve this, the WGSA provides a range of services which include:

- Empowerment and development of performance writers in South Africa
- Collective bargaining for fair rates, contracts and benefits
- Protection of the rights of performance writers
- Script registration services and collection of residuals and royalties on behalf of performance writers
- Providing a voice and community for performance writers
